

Forms of Legal Relief for Survivors of Human Trafficking

Monday, February 7, 2011
12:00 pm - 2:00 pm
Hastings College of the Law
200 McAllister Street, Alumnae Reception Center

The Center for Gender and Refugee Studies at Hastings College of the Law and the San Francisco Collaborative Against Human Trafficking present this expert panel discussion in honor of San Francisco's Human Trafficking Awareness Campaign.

As the community and law enforcement increase their intervention efforts to expose human trafficking here in San Francisco, attorneys will need to understand the various forms of legal relief that may be available to help survivors find safety and freedom.

This FREE training is ideal for attorneys, law students, and others engaged in survivor advocacy. Continuing Legal Education hours will be offered.

Expert Panelists:

Lisa Frydman

Managing Attorney
Center for Gender and Refugee Studies
Hastings College of the Law

Abigail Trilling

Managing Attorney
Legal Services for Children

Cindy Liou

Staff Attorney
Asian Pacific Islander Legal Outreach

Catherine Ward Seitz

Regional Immigration Coordinator
Bay Area Legal Aid

Please feel free to bring your lunch to this event.
RSVP and Questions: send name, email address, organization and title to Seema Kadaba, kadabas@uchastings.edu.

For more information about the Human Trafficking Awareness Campaign and to view a calendar of events, go to www.sfcaht.org.