

The Elks Lodge #1108 &  Present:

A Reunion of the Men of the Community
Man-to-Man Discussions about Domestic Minor Sex Trafficking of Teenagers
here in our backyard

Monday, January 18th, 6:30-8:30 PM
San Rafael Elks Lodge #1108 in the Card Room, 1312 Mission Avenue, San Rafael, CA

The subject of child sex trafficking is a sensitive one, especially for men. While it is true that men are overwhelmingly the perpetrators of this crime, both as pimps and johns, it is also true that the majority of men want to protect the teens in their own lives and those of their friends.

Education on the Facts vs. the Myths of the commercial sex trade is the best way to know what really goes on in the lives of the minors caught in 'the Life' and living in plain sight behind closed doors.

This "men only" discussion will feature:

You, questioning and speaking freely with Les Higashi, Ambassador of Hope, Shared Hope International Officer Bradley Kashack, Marin County Sheriff Department
The San Rafael Police Officers on the human trafficking team
Stephen Wooldridge, Survivor Advocate, Center for Domestic Peace

Elks men and Non-Elks men alike are welcome at this event and are encouraged to bring their teen sons.

Spread the word!

Parking directions at Elks Lodge, San Rafael:

Use the driveway into 'Maple Lawn', a walled property at the top of 'C' Street on Mission Street. Drive past the front of the Lodge building and follow the one-way signs to park behind the Lodge OR you can park across the street at City Hall parking lot on Mission and 'C' Street.

MYTH:
A person who is being trafficked
will always try to seek help.

FACT:
A person may be too afraid or may not realise what is happening to them.

Even if someone doesn't seek or accept help, this doesn't mean
they are not being trafficked.
