The Anti-Trafficking Collaborative of the Bay Area (ATCBA) is comprised of three member agencies: Asian Pacific Islander Legal Outreach, Asian Women’s Shelter, and Mujeres Unidas y Activas. ATCBA continues to engage in legislative and policy advocacy on behalf of trafficking survivors, as well as provide comprehensive and holistic direct legal and social services to men, women, transgendered, and child survivors of human trafficking. We have served survivors from over thirty-five countries who have been trafficked throughout the United States.
